IT'S ALL ABOUT THE MUSIC

Fans of the Silverscreen can't get enough...ASO Goes to the Movies Is A Blockbuster Hit!

2nd and Final Performance Announced!

For Immediate Release

Following unprecedented box office demand and the recent announcement of Australia's leading lady of stage and screen Rachael Beck as special guest, the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra have announced a second and final night of their ASO Goes to the Movies concert.

To be held on Friday, 30 May, 8.00pm and Saturday, 31 May, 8.00pm at Adelaide Festival Theatre audiences can relive some of the finest movie music moments in history with the full strength Adelaide Symphony Orchestra, Conductor Brett Kelly and special guest Rachael Beck.

From the romance of Gone with the Wind and Beauty and the Beast, the action of Bond and adventure of Pirates of the Caribbean to the sci-fi of Star Wars, lovers of the silver screen will savour every moment of ASO Goes to Movies. Be inspired by some of the great film composers of our time in John Williams, Max Steiner, Irving Berlin and Elmer Bernstein.

For ASO Goes to the Movies Rachael Beck will perform a selection of songs from the rich repertoire of songs from the Movies, ranging from the era of classical Hollywood to recent hits. The Trolley Song and Somewhere over the Rainbow have become classics which immediately conjure the rich imagery and associations of the classic movies from which they were born. In more recent times, songs like Beauty and the Beast have established themselves as standards of the modern era and add to the evening's spirit of musical pleasure. Rachael will also give a new rendition of the raunchy Moulin Rouge hit, Voulez-vous coucher avec moi.

ASO Goes to the Movies is performed on Friday, 30 May and Saturday, 31 May at Adelaide Festival Theatre. Bookings for both these performances can be made through BASS outlets, dial 'n' charge 131 246 and online www.bass.net.au
